

Detective Constable Brad Browne
Ontario Provincial Police

Dedicated to Protecting Communities and Fighting Organized Crime

With 18 years of dedicated service in policing, Brad brings extensive experience in handling complex criminal cases, particularly in homicides and sexual assaults. Currently assigned to the Strategic Operations Intelligence Unit (SOIU) within the Provincial Operations Intelligence Bureau (POIB), Brad is committed to gathering and providing intelligence to disrupt, deter, and dismantle organized crime. Brad is presently leading a provincial investigation into the use of general aviation by organized crime groups. Join Brad and his team in the fight against organized crime and ensuring the safety of our communities.