

Detective Constable John Wood

Ontario Provincial Police

John has been a police officer with the Ontario Provincial Police for fifteen years. After working general patrol duties for nine years, he was assigned to the OPP Community Street Crime Unit. John has gained extensive experience with the investigation of street level drug and property crimes in numerous Ontario communities. John is currently assigned to the Strategic Operations Intelligence Unit (SOIU) within the Provincial Operations Intelligence Bureau (POIB). John is committed to the collection and sharing of intelligence, which is used to disrupt, deter, and dismantle organized crime groups. John is currently assigned to a provincial investigation regarding the use of general aviation by organized crime groups.